

2018 Asian Youth Entrepreneur Summer Camp

1. Purpose: The camp aims to encourage the exchange of innovation ideas and entrepreneurship thinking between the younger generations in Asia. Through this program, we hope to facilitate cross-border startups, promote and share the development of regional economic resources and services. The 10-day program covers activities including entrepreneurship courses, ideas exchanging (between the participants and the investors), company visits, and cultural experience trip.

*For the ideas exchanging on the last day of the camp, each team will pitch to the venture capital and angel investor, and have the chance to get investment for your idea.

2. Date: August 1-10, 2018

3. Eligible participants:

- 40 students (20 students from Southeast Asian countries and 20 Taiwanese students)
- College or university students with passion and ideas of innovation and entrepreneurship. (including graduate and Ph.D Program students)
- Participants should have fair/good English communication skills (at least fluent for daily life conversation.)

8. Registration: Applicants should fill in the application form (as attached) and email the to this email address(t1r1s1a1@gmail.com) before May 31th. The organizer will review the applications and announce the list of qualified applicants in June.
